I can see this was written by a mandolinist! This is one case where the bowings are crucial for playing some of these runs, and I had to make a few other adjustments.

Neat tune! Simple in its basic form, but it has really grown on me.

I'm afraid I don't know if there's a "standard" form of the tune; this is just me cobbling together what I've heard and what I've invented on top of it.

Notes: Another new tune for me. Seems to have a lot in common with The Blackbird set dance, with its repeated landing on the open D, but is also recognizably distinct. Still figuring out chords and fine-tuning the arrangement. One interesting feature is a "slippery" C, sometimes sharp in line with with the key signature and sometimes dropping down to natural.

Notes: Bonnie plays this on the viola and it sounds awesome. I've transposed it up a fifth to work on the fiddle. Another interesting thing is that she switches between A dorian (with a C natural) - which seems to be the standard - and mixolydian (C sharp). She combines B&B with Cuzle Together, another slipjig also in Amix (as well as Elsie Marley). This is supplemented with a version in Edor by Fraser and Haas, with a nice B-part.
