Chords: D D G C | D D C D :| D G D A7 | D G C D :|

Source: Amanda Kerr; Randal Bays + Dave Marshall (with my own licks added)

Notes: Another new tune for me. Seems to have a lot in common with The Blackbird set dance, with its repeated landing on the open D, but is also recognizably distinct. Still figuring out chords and fine-tuning the arrangement. One interesting feature is a "slippery" C, sometimes sharp in line with with the key signature and sometimes dropping down to natural.

A little more repetitive, but in a good way! Good as a reference.
Chording remains basic / uncertain.

Chords: D D/Em D G/A7 :| D D/G D G/A7 :|

Notes: A fun tune I was shown in Durham! First comes the basic melody, then my variations.
The G and Em chords are fairly interchangeable. I mix and match them in this arrangement.
The ~ signs mark Irish rolls, meaning you need to do something like bow triplets to make it more interesting. Or fiddle through it, like I have in the second half of the B-part.

Notes: Now this is an interesting number! The B-part follows a pretty standard I/VIIb progression found in many Celtic tunes, but the A-part uses the "Dorian vamp," pretty unusual in fiddle tunes but a staple in classic rock. For that reason, I think it's perhaps a more "jammy" tune than a melodic one; and one version I looked at had a G-F-Em-Am windup that gave it a little more of a bluesy punch. The top 4 bars are the tune in its base form, and the bottom 4 bars illustrate how I imagine the tune in a jam setting.

Cuzle Together

Edor version by Fraser and Haas

Source: Bonnie Rideout, _Scottish Fire_ (2000); A. Fraser and N. Haas, _Fire & Grace_ (2004).

Notes: Bonnie plays this on the viola and it sounds awesome. I've transposed it up a fifth to work on the fiddle. Another interesting thing is that she switches between A dorian (with a C natural) - which seems to be the standard - and mixolydian (C sharp). She combines B&B with Cuzle Together, another slipjig also in Amix (as well as Elsie Marly). This is supplemented with a version in Edor by Fraser and Haas, with a nice B-part.

Notes: I've modified the bowing to something that makes more sense to me. But of course this is just a model to be played with.
